

South Patagonia Ski

Patagonia Argentina.

El Chaltén is one of the best unexplored areas of mountain skiing in Argentina, with a long season and magnificent snow. The variety of places, aspects and inclinations make possible to ski even with the wild Patagonian weather. Skiing around great peaks like Fitz Roy and Cerro Torre is a unique experience. From one to ten-day ski tours, the Patagonian snow and the small town of El Chalten offer a great adventure. Cerro Vespignani, Mosquito, Crestón and Madsen are some of our goals for unforgettable turns. The program can be adapted both in duration and on the itinerary according to your schedule and physical condition.

Difficulty: from low to high.

Duration: 1 to 10 days.

Pax: 1 or 2 skiers

Recommended time: July to September.
